

RECENT NEWS

STORY ARCHIVES

NEWSLETTERS

MARCH 2014 DEAN'S DESK

MAY 2014 DEAN'S DESK

SHARE THIS STORY:

In the News

"Bridge Street" (WSYR-TV)

Jul 2, 2014

talked to Deborah Justice, the Carole and Alvin I. Schragis Faculty Fellow in the Department of Art and Music Histories, about her work with "media-savvy evangelicalism."

WRVO Public Media

Jul 2, 2014

spoke with Ben Bradley, professor of philosophy, about his new Immortality Project, involving the University of California, Riverside. The grant enables him to examine death, rational emotion, and meaningfulness.

The Huffington Post

Jun 18, 2014

featured a blog post written by Associate Dean for College Relations Stephen Secora explaining why engagement is key to turning admitted students into enrolled students.

The Post Standard

Jun 13, 2014

spoke with Professor David Althoff about the upcoming Central New York mosquito season.

MedPageToday

Jun 2, 2014

discussed hearing loss among and its impact on veterans with Joe Pellegrino, the Gebbie Hearing Clinic director.

Poet Lyn Lifshin '60 Continues on Publishing Streak

Arts and Sciences alumna remembers her inspiring professors at Syracuse University

Jul 15, 2014 | Article by: Laura Bulman

Lyn Lifshin '60 (Photo courtesy of Albert Jordan)

the inside flap."

Syracuse University positively impacted Lifshin in other ways as well. Lifshin's first of many published poems appeared in Syracuse 10, a former literary journal on campus. She also remembers the personal growth that she went through by attending Syracuse University.

"Coming from a small hometown, Syracuse was delightfully diverse. There was a richness of cultural events and a variety of guest speakers. I enjoyed going to see some of the art and theater performed in Syracuse, although between classes and papers there never seemed to be much free time."

Lifshin shows no signs of slowing down, publishing several books in the last few years. Secretariat: The Red Freak, The Miracle (Texas Review Press 2014) tells the story of the award winning horse from his birth to his death. Malala (Poetic Matrix Press 2014) tells the story, through a collection of poems, of the young Pakistani girl almost killed for wanting to go to school. A Girl Goes into the Woods (NYQ Books 2013) is another collection of poems on varied subjects. Tangled as the Alphabet: The Istanbul Poems (NightBallet Press 2013) contains photos and poems from a recent trip to Turkey. Knife Edge and Absinthe: The Tango Poems (NightBallet Press 2012) consists of a series of poems inspired by the Argentine tango.

Lyn Lifshin '60 says that her proudest accomplishment is her books and it is easy to see why. Lifshin has published over 130 books and chapbooks, including six in just the last two years. Lifshin, who graduated with an English major from the College of Arts and Sciences, has been praised for her excellence in writing, especially poetry. She attributes much of her success to her days as a student and aspiring writer at Syracuse University.

"I was truly inspired by my professors," Lifshin says. "They made me want to explore and travel. Their emphasis on imagination and wonder really influenced me. I also loved the art and music courses. I still have and refer to one of my textbooks, Arts and Ideas by William Fleming, my Comstock Ave address printed on

Upcoming Events

Movies on the Quad: Divergent
July 18, 2014 at 9:00 PM

Quad

Films begin just after dark, around 9pm. The first 200 attendees with SU I.D. will receive free popcorn, drink, and a giveaway. Rain location is Shemin Auditorium in Shaffer Art Building. Movies-on-the-Quad are made possible by Swank Motion Pictures Inc. and CNY & Syracuse FunFlicks.

Movies on the Quad: Ride Along
August 1, 2014 at 9:00 PM

Quad

FROM THE INSIDE OUT: A Veteran's Perspective in Poetry and Prose

September 11, 2014 at 7:00 PM

Watson Theatre

SYRACUSE UNIVERSITY HUMAN RIGHTS FILM FESTIVAL

September 18, 2014 (All Day)

Joyce Hergenham Auditorium, Newhouse 3

SYRACUSE UNIVERSITY HUMAN RIGHTS FILM FESTIVAL

September 19, 2014 at 7:00 PM

Shemin Auditorium, Shaffer Art Building

SYRACUSE UNIVERSITY HUMAN RIGHTS FILM FESTIVAL

September 20, 2014 at 1:00 PM

Shemin Auditorium, Shaffer Art Building

"LIGHTNESS: In the Air with William Faulkner and Margaret Bourke-White"

October 1, 2014 at 7:00 PM

Peter Graham Scholarly Commons, E.s. Bird Library

MARK TRODDEN: "EMBRACING THE DARK SIDE: In Search of the Missing Pieces of the Cosmic Puzzle"

October 2, 2014 at 4:00 PM

The Kilian Room 500 Hall of Languages

PLACE AND MOMENT: Day for Night
October 16, 2014 (All Day)

Point of Contact Gallery, Warehouse Building ground floor, 350 West Fayette Street

OPENING RECEPTION: PLACE AND MOMENT: Day for Night

October 16, 2014 at 6:00 PM

Point of Contact Gallery, Warehouse Building ground floor, 350 West Fayette Street

Arts and Sciences Events
SU News

Dean's Newsletter March 2014

Dean's Newsletter May 2014

Contact Information

Rob Enslin
315-443-3403
rmenslin@syr.edu